

Please do not let Low Power FM take priority over current FM translator service. I listen to Air 1 Radio, and it is the only station I listen to, since it is the only Christian station in my area. Many people I know would not be happy to lose Air 1. It is in the public interest to keep things as they are to provide clean, commercial free music. Thank you.